CHATSWORTH

The winning tradition continues at Chatsworth High School as Coach Meusborn enters his twelfth year as the head of the Chatsworth Baseball program. There are many ways to measure success and Coach Meusborn has spent the last 12 years establishing the standard in every category while having an immense impact on the local and national prep baseball scene.

Under his guidance the Chatsworth Baseball Program has become recognized as one of the premier programs not only in the valley and state, but also throughout the nation. Meusborn has a career record of 250-70-2 in 11 seasons. The Chancellors have won nine West Valley League Championships during his tenure, appeared in five City Title Games, and have won two CIF Los Angeles City Section Championships in 1990 and 1999. Chatsworth has either won a City or League Title every year that Coach Meusborn has been the head coach.

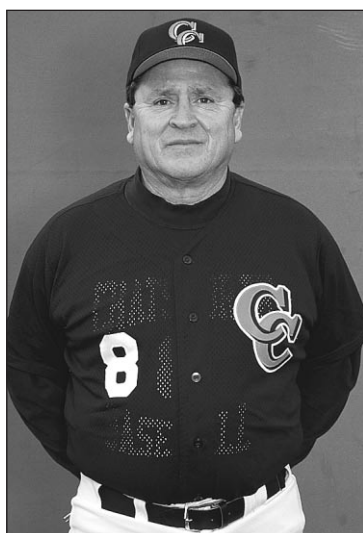

Coach Meusborn was honored in the year 2000 by the American Baseball Coaches Association as the Region 8 Coach of the Year and was honored in Nashville, Tennessee in January. Chatsworth has been nationally ranked by the USA Today and other national publications in 1990, 1998, 1999, 2000, and again in 2001.

Prior to Chatsworth High School Coach Meusborn was a physical education teacher and baseball coach at Grant High School in Van Nuys.

A graduate of Long Beach State University, he and his wife Mary, son Shawn and daughter Kellie reside in Granada Hills.

Tom Meusborn #15
HEAD VARSITY COACH

Ron Martinez #8
HEAD JUNIOR VARSITY COACH

This is Coach Martinez's twelfth year as a member of the Chatsworth Baseball staff and his tenth year as the Head Junior Varsity Coach. Coach Martinez also served as a Varsity assistant for 2 years. Coach Martinez has guided the junior varsity program to seven league titles in eight years, and will once again inherit a team with outstanding young talent.

Coach Martinez has been a full time instructor at Chatsworth for twelve years now and currently works as a dean of students.

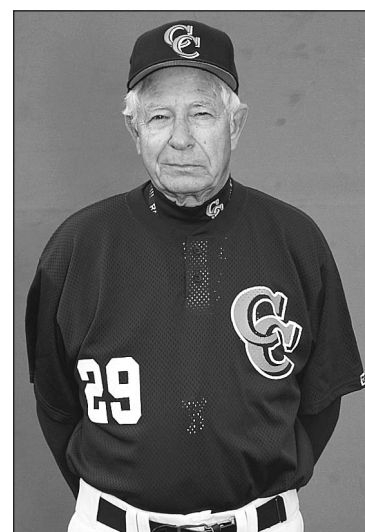

Along with his duties on the baseball field, Coach Martinez also works with the football team as the offensive coordinator. He and his wife Rita reside in Chatsworth.

Charlie Hatfield #29
HEAD FROSH/SOPH COACH

This is Coach Charlie Hatfield's eighth season as Head Coach of the Frosh/Soph Team. He will also serve as an assistant on the Varsity level. For the past eleven seasons Coach Hatfield has helped run the American Legion Program in the state and national level as the Area 6 Commissioner.

Before coming to Chatsworth, Charlie served as a Coach of the Sylmar American Legion Program for many years. His teams enjoyed tremendous success competing on the national level and captured a World Series Title.

Charlie now works at Chatsworth as a campus aid throughout the school day and is constantly supporting the student athletes of Chatsworth High School. Charlie resides in Chatsworth.

CHATSWORTH

Matt LaCour #3
ASSISTANT VARSITY COACH

Coach LaCour enters his fourth season as an assistant coach on the varsity level. During his first two seasons Coach LaCour worked with the infielders and hitters and has now taken over the pitching staff.

Coach LaCour also works during the summer as the head coach of the Chatsworth American Legion Team. During his tenure as coach, the Chatsworth Legion Team has enjoyed tremendous success. Advancing to the play-offs each year, the team has won the District 20 and Area 6 Championship in 1997 and 1999, State Championship in 1997, and made a World Series appearance as the Western Regional Championship team in 1999.

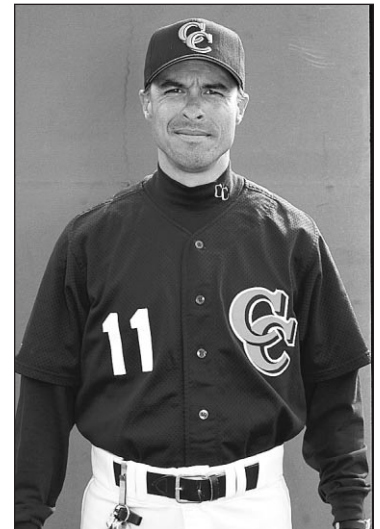

Prior to his return to Chatsworth High School, where he played for the 1992 semi-final team, Coach LaCour served as an assistant at U.C. Santa Barbara where the team made their first NCAA Regional appearance in 8 years.

A graduate of U.C. Santa Barbara, he and his wife Patty and daughter Taylor reside in Santa Clarita.

Mike Encinas #11
ASSISTANT JUNIOR VARSITY COACH

This is Mike's fifth year as an Assistant on the Junior Varsity level. Mike will continue to work with the hitters and infielders providing instruction.

Mike has worked as an assistant during the summers as well helping the American Legion Team, and has previously been the Head Soccer Coach at Chatsworth. Mike teaches Physical Education and resides in Encino.

Stuart Sellz #24
ASSISTANT FROSH/SOPH COACH

Stuart returns to Chatsworth after graduating in 1996. Stuart will work with the pitchers on the Junior Varsity and Frosh/Soph teams.

Stuart played for two years at Moorpark College after graduating from Chatsworth. He is currently at CSUN and plans on finishing his degree this year. Stuart resides in Chatsworth.

PITCHERS

Jason Dominguez
Sean Richards
Justin Cassel
Joe Guntz
Ian Kramer

2001 Season Pitching Outlook

The Chancellors finished the 2000 season with a team ERA of 4.38 and look to improve on that mark in the 2001 season. Chatsworth returns it's two primary starters from last years team in Joe Guntz (11-0, 3.78 ERA) and Sean Richards (9-2, 62 innings pitched).

The team also looks to Sophomore Justin Cassel (3-0, 2.25 ERA) and Freshman Jason Dominguez to challenge for a spot in the starting rotation.

Senior right-hander Ian Kramer out of the bullpen will anchor the Chancellors staff.

CATCHERS

Brent Paet

Danny Dominguez

2001 Season Catching Outlook

Danny Dominguez is the projected starter behind the plate for the Chancellors in 2001. Danny is an outstanding defensive catcher who handles the pitching staff masterfully. His good arm and quick feet kept opposing base runners in check in 2000, as he threw out 50% of the runners who attempted to steal.

The backup behind the dish will be Brent Paet, who has been promoted from the Junior Varsity team. Brent has good defensive skills to go along with his strong bat.

2001 Season Infield Outlook

Senior Gregg Wallis returns to anchor the Chancellor infield. Wallis, a defensive whiz, is arguably the team's top offensive player, batting .389 in 2000 with 35 hits and 39 runs scored. George Spadier, another returning senior will solidify the first base position and is expected to produce offensively for Chatsworth.

Joe Guntz and Justin Cassel, both expected to focus primarily on pitching could also see time at first base during the season and possess excellent power.

Ryan Barba will make the move from 3rd base to shortstop his junior year. Ryan performed brilliantly at 3rd base last year and produced surprising power with 4 HR during his sophomore campaign.

Brett Munster will make the move up from the junior varsity team and is expected to start at 3rd base for the Chancellors. Brett possesses excellent defensive skills and will be relied on to produce both offensively and defensively in the 2001 year. Seniors Arthur Chavarria and Paul Baumstark will anchor the defensive infield.

OUTFIELDERS

Brian Lee
Jason Dominguez
Jared Halpert
Jon Selman
Jason Zuniga

2001 Season Outfield Outlook

Junior Brian Lee returns to the outfield for his second year. Lee led the Chancellors in hitting last year (.436) and will be relied on to have another outstanding year at the plate. Brian will be the starting left fielder.

Another junior will return in the outfield for Chatsworth in Jared Halpert. The defensive leader of the outfield, Jared possesses excellent speed and tremendously improved arm strength and accuracy. After hitting .346 for Chatsworth last year Jared will be a focal point of the Chancellor offense and defense.

Senior Jon Selman and Freshman Jason Dominguez will compete for the right field job with each bringing excellent skills to the field.

Jason Zuniga will also be involve in all of the outfield positions and could see a bulk of his time as a pinch hitter of the bench.

It was just a pop fly to shallow center field, but Matt Fisher ran as hard as he could. The ball was dropped and Fisher ended up at third base.

Head-up plays like that one, which sparked a four-run fifth inning, helped the Chatsworth High baseball team pull away—in Thursday's game and in the West Valley League race.

Chatsworth's 7-4 victory over El Camino Real of Woodland Hills gives the Chancellors a two-game lead over the Bulldogs, who have Chatsworth offense. The Chancellors (19-1-1, 10-0) needed only two for its fifth-inning rally, though.

"We felt it," Halpert said of the inning that featured seven more batters and two pitching changes after Fisher's pop up.

Usually when Fish gets a big hit, we want to follow it up and bring him in."

Chatsworth's aggressiveness on the bases—it had three stolen bases, went for bases—and tried to get in run downs the extra base and from third — carried over to its pitching.

Freshman Justin Cassel relieved starter Sean Richards (7-1) with the bases loaded and one out in the sixth. He induced an

While Chatsworth High suffered through two straight City championship baseball losses, James Sharkey was at "talk" suffering through two straight losses.

Sharkey, Chatsworth's second baseman, makes the distinction between when Chatsworth usually exercised its dominance and when it first City title since 1989 and third overall, new year's day.

Sharkey and both teams the after game didn't matter. "We used to win it all the time," he said.

No, perhaps to produce something, the entire team Thursday night celebrated Sharkey's home. The Chatsworth's long march, spent four weeks and two games 17-1 run of Poly.
