COACHES

CHATSWORTH 2002

The winning tradition continues at Chatsworth High School as Coach Meusborn enters his thirteenth year as the head of the Chatsworth Baseball program. Last year Coach Meusborn was named Los Angeles Times Valley Edition Coach of the Year and Cal-Hi Sports Baseball's Coach of the Year.

Under his guidance the Chatsworth Baseball Program has become recognized as one of the premier programs not only in the valley and state, but also throughout the nation. Meusborn has a career record of 281-72-2 in 12 seasons. The Chancellors have won ten West Valley League Championships during his tenure, appeared in six City Title Games, and have won three CIF Los Angeles City Section Championships in 1990, 1999 and 2001. Chatsworth has either won a City or League Title all but one year under Coach Meusborn.

Coach Meusborn was honored in the year 2000 by the American Baseball Coaches Association as the Region 8 Coach of the Year and was honored in Nashville, Tennessee. Chatsworth has been nationally ranked by the USA Today and other national publications in 1990, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 and again in 2002.

Prior to Chatsworth High School, Coach Meusborn was a physical education teacher and baseball coach at Grant High School in Van Nuys.

A graduate of Long Beach State University, he and his wife Mary, son Shawn and daughter Kellie reside in Granada Hills.

Tom Meusborn #15

HEAD VARSITY COACH

Ron Martinez #8

HEAD JUNIOR VARSITY COACH

This is Coach Martinez's thirteenth year as a member of the Chatsworth Baseball staff and his eleventh year as the Head Junior Varsity Coach. Coach Martinez also served as a Varsity assistant for 2 years. Coach Martinez has guided the junior varsity program to eight league titles in nine years, and will once again inherit a team with outstanding young talent. Last year's team went undefeated, with a record of 28-0.

Coach Martinez has been a full time instructor at Chatsworth for thirteenth years now and currently works as a dean of students.

Along with his duties on the baseball field, Coach Martinez also works with the football team as the offensive coordinator. He and his wife Rita reside in Chatsworth.

Charlie Hatfield #12

HEAD FROSH/SOPH COACH

This is Coach Charlie Hatfield's ninth season as Head Coach of the Frosh/Soph Team. He will also serve as an assistant on the Varsity level. For the past twelve seasons Coach Hatfield has helped run the American Legion Program in the state and national level as the Area 6 Commissioner.

Before coming to Chatsworth, Charlie served as a Coach of the Sylmar American Legion Program for many years. His teams enjoyed tremendous success competing on the national level and captured a World Series Title.

Charlie now works at Chatsworth as a campus aid throughout the school day and is constantly supporting the student athletes of Chatsworth High School. Charlie resides in Northridge.

Justin Cassel
Joe Guntz
Jason Dominguez
Bryan Petersen
Joudan Leiro

2002 Season Outlook

Senior left-hander Joe Guntz anchors the Chancellor staff, bringing a 25-O career record into the season. Guntz was selected City Section player of the year in 2001 after posting a 14-O record with a 1.28 earned-run average. He defeated Roosevelt, 2-1, in the City Final at Dodger Stadium.

Junior right-hander Justin Cassel (5-2, 46 strikeouts) and sophomore right-hander Jason Dominguez (6-O, 2.08 ERA) combine with Guntz to give the Chancellors one of the strongest rotations in the Southland.

Right-handers Joudan Leiro and Robert Ninfo, seniors promoted from the junior varsity team that finished 28-O last season, and sophomore right-hander Bryan Petersen provide solid support out of the bullpen.

The Chancellors had a 2.25 ERA and seven shutouts last year, and limited opponents to a .223 batting average.

CATCHERS

(Left to Right)

Jordan Sisson

Art Cisneros

2002 Season Outlook

The Chancellors have a new starter behind the plate in junior Jordan Sisson, last year's backup. After filling in admirably for several games because of an injury, Sisson handled the designated hitter duties and batted .372 with two home runs and 10 runs batted in.

Converted infielder Art Cisneros, a junior who played junior varsity and had a .385 batting average last season, is a tough and reliable backup.

2002 Season Outlook

Sure-handed senior shortstop Ryan Barba and junior third baseman Brett Munster stabilize the infield with outstanding defensive skills. Barba, an All-City second-team selection last year, batted .368 with nine doubles and 24 runs batted in. Munster batted .244 but improved dramatically over the summer and winter, becoming one of the team's top hitters. Barba committed only five errors last season and Munster was third on the squad with 40 assists.

Senior Robert Ninfo and sophomore Willie Cabrera, excellent fielders promoted from the junior varsity, form the double-play combination with Barba.

First base is in the capable hands of speedy junior Keith Renno, a converted outfielder who was the West Valley League's co-most valuable player in 2001, and sophomore Bryan Petersen, a hard-hitting left-handed batter who is also new to the position.

OUTFIELDERS

Brian Lee
Jared Halpert
Jason Dominguez
Bryan Petersen
Joudan Leiro
Chris Fredericks

2002 Season Outlook

Two-time All-City selection Brian Lee patrols left field and teams with senior center fielder Jared Halpert and sophomore right fielder Jason Dominguez to comprise a hard-hitting and excellent defensive unit. Lee batted .389 with a team-high seven home runs and .676 slugging percentage. Halpert had a team-leading 36 runs batted in and hit six home runs. Dominguez batted .345 and was second on the team with seven stolen bases.

Senior Joudan Leiro, a right-handed batter, and sophomore Bryan Petersen, a left-handed batter, add punch and speed to the outfield and junior Chris Fredericks brings a reliable glove. Leiro and Fredericks are up from the junior varsity. Fredericks was the West Valley League's co-most valuable player last year.

Chatsworth returns to City final

By Heather Gripp
Staff Writer

The run Gregg Wallis scored in the sixth inning put Chatsworth's baseball team up three runs. It also proved Chancellors don't need opponents' help to win.

Chatsworth scored just enough runs in Thursday's game to advance to the City Championship game Tuesday night before 3,536 at Dodger Stadium.

A championship season

Guntz stays perfect as Chatsworth holds on for its fourth City title

By Heather Gripp
Staff Writer

This powerhouse has everything except power. The Chatsworth High baseball team has a solid defense, a stingy pitching staff and the ability to manufacture runs. Now the Chancellors also have their second City title in three years and fourth overall.

Top-seeded Chatsworth defeated No. 15 Roosevelt of Los Angeles 2-1 in the City final Tuesday at Dodger Stadium, finding success with a pitcher whose pitches rarely top the low 80s and an offense that relied on walks and soft base hits.

Guntz Helps Chatsworth Gut Out City Final, 2-1

By ERIC SONNHEIMER
Times staff writer

Chatsworth High's pitcher is no ordinary Joe. Left-hander Joe Guntz of Chatsworth improved his career record to 25-0 by outdueling Aaron Diaz of Roosevelt and lifting the Chancellors to their second City title.

Chatsworth keeps its date with destiny

From the very outset, all signs pointed to destiny.

But like a beautifully rational Venusian, the objective fit the Chancellors (31-2) perfectly. They were it with class and a touch of grace, neither running from the expectations or staying away from them.

This wasn't a burden, it was a responsibility, one the Chancellors willingly of then carried out with the grace of a surgeon performing a delicate operation.

USA's best in baseball

Chatsworth (Calif.) High has rushed to a 16-0 record, and its pitching staff's ERA is less than 1.00. The result is a No. 1 ranking in USA TODAY's first high school baseball Super 25 of the spring. Story, poll, Dandy Dozen players, 12C
