Varsity outlook

Enancellors

Expectations and comparisons can be two-edged swords. Sometimes they can motivate, but often seem to generate unnecessary pressure. How the 2004 Chancellors handle them remains to be seen.

This edition of the immensely successful Chatsworth baseball program has to deal with the aftermath of the greatest season in school history — a 33-1 record, 22nd West Valley League banner, a fifth Los Angeles City championship and the capper, a national title.

To expect a recurrence of such lofty achievements would be unfair, but not necessarily impossible. The Chancellors charge into the new season with another talented group of players ready to make its own statement.

PITCHERS

Senior right-hander Jason Dominguez, who has signed with Pepperdine, returns after posting an 11-0 record with a 2.60 earned-run average and 84 strikeouts in 70 innings.

Seniors Jake Norton and Zach Oasheim give the Chancellors two left-handers on the staff for the first time since 2001. Norton was 1-0 with a 3.35 ERA last season at Garden Grove Pacifica. Oasheim was 1-0 with the varsity and 3-0 with a 1.05 ERA on the JV.

Senior right-hander Bryan Petersen assumes the role of closer after basically staying off the mound the last two

Mike Fernandez

CATCHERS

After playing third base last season, senior Mike Fernandez moves behind the plate. The All-West Valley League selection provided punch with eight home runs to go with a .381 batting average and a .742 slugging percentage, second on the team.

Freshman Mike Moustakas, a shortstop, backs up Fernandez.

Mike Moustakas

INFIELDERS

Senior Willie Cabrera anchors the Chancellor infield from his second base position after having a strong fall-winter season.

He has help on the right side of the infield from first baseman Thomas Cassidy, a hard-hitting junior. Cassidy was the backup last year.

The left side of the infield could be manned by freshmen, a whole new experience at Chatsworth. The only freshman infielder to previously start for the Chancellors was shortstop

Matt Dominguez

Varsity outlook

Matt Fisher (UC Irvine) in 1997. Now the left-handed-hitting Moustakas and third baseman Matt Dominguez, Jason's brother, try to follow suit.

Junior Mitul Patel, promoted from the JV, provides speed and a steady bat, and can play third base or second base. Slick-fielding sophomore Oscar Gutierrez can handle either keystone position.

Oscar Gutierrez

Oliver Padre

Mitul Patel OUTFIELDERS

When not on the mound. Dominguez, an All-State selection and the WVL coplayer of the year in 2003 with teammate Justin Cassel (UC Irvine), provides sock as the center fielder. He batted .449 with nine home runs last year.

Petersen, also pulling double duty, patrols right field or center field, depending on who is pitching. He belted five home runs last season, but none more memorable than the two-run shot against Carson in the City Section final at Dodger Stadium.

> Left-handed-hitting Norton is vying for a starting spot in the outfield, along with four players up from JV: junior Andrew Baslow, senior Chris Imel. senior Tim Nowak and sophomore Oliver Padre. the WVL JV player of the year in 2003.

Andrew Basiow

OUTLOOK

Pitching is the cornerstone of every successful team and the Chancellors are not short on arms.

"The strength of our team starts on the mound." Coach Tom Meusborn said. "Our pitchers know we will have close games and they are ready for the challenge."

On offense, the Chancellors feature five players who combined for 25 of a school-record 41 home runs last season and some newcomers who also figure to provide muscle.

"We have a good mix of right-handed and left-handed hitters with power," Meusborn said. "We have the ability to score a lot of runs."

The defense is revamped, particularly in the infield, but Meusborn doesn't expect any letdown.

"Our team was very solid last fall," he said. "We are excited about the way the new guys have played so far."

Senior right-hander Justin Cassel (UC Irvine) finished the 2003 season with 25 consecutive scoreless innings. Here's the breakdown:

- Five innings against Granada Hills in a league game May 20
- Four innings against Fremont in the first round of the playoffs May 30
- Seven innings against Kennedy in the second round of the playoffs June 4
- Two innings in relief against Banning in the playoff semifinals June 6
- Seven innings against Carson in City Final on June 10

The Chancellors scored at least one run in 21 consecutive innings, starting in the sixth inning of an 8-0 victory over Taft on March 25 and continuing through first four innings of a 10-5 victory over El Camino Real on April 3.

Dodger Stadium

Since the City Section title game was first played at Dodger Stadium in 1969, Chatsworth has played at the venue 10 times, including twice for third place when such a game was also held at the stadium. Here's a recap:

Tuesday, June 10 Los Angeles City Section Champions National Champions

Much more than a City Section title was at stake for the Chancellors when they faced the Carson Colts on a cool night at Dodger Stadium. The Chancellors went into the game ranked No. 1 in the nation and only a victory would guarantee their first national championship. They stood up to the challenge. Behind a marvelous performance by right-hander Justin Cassel and a huge home run by left fielder Bryan Petersen, the Chancellors defeated the Colts, 3-0, in front of about 4,000.

It was Chatsworth's third City Section title in five years and fifth overall. And when the final polls were announced a few days later, the Chancellors were declared national champions by USA Today, Baseball America magazine and Collegiate Baseball magazine. They were the first California team to be voted No. 1 in the nation by Baseball America in 11 years.

Cassel (15-0), a UC Irvine-bound senior who dominated all season, saved his best for the biggest stage yet. He took a nohitter into the seventh inning before settling for his fourth onehitter and eighth shutout of the year. As expected, he was selected the City Section most valuable player.

The Chancellors (33-1) reached the final riding a 14-game winning streak, including shutouts in two of the three playoff games: Fremont, 12-0; Kennedy, 2-0, and Banning, 4-3. Carson, which had lost to Chatsworth, 5-4, in a nonleague game at Carson in March, represented the last obstacle on the championship road.

Chatsworth wasted no time getting on the scoreboard. Senior leadoff batter and right fielder Keith Renno reached on an error and scored on senior catcher Jordan Sisson's single through the middle for a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning.

Cassel then went to work and made the run stand inning after inning with a hard fastball and sharp curve ball that produced nine strikeouts. The first-inning run would have been sufficient to win the game, but Petersen came up with a virtual clincher in the sixth inning.

With senior pitcher Ross Liddell pinch-running at second base for junior outfielder Kevin Lee, who had walked as a pinch-hitter, Petersen turned on a 0-and-1 offering from right-hander Luis Magadan and blasted a 375-homer to right-center field to put the Chancellors ahead, 3-0. It was only the 15th homer in a City Section final since the title game started being played at Dodger Stadium in 1969.

A few minutes later, after senior second baseman Nimish Patel had fielded a grounder and fed senior shortstop Brett Munster for a game-ending force out at second base, the Chancellors were celebrating like they had never before—with another City Section title and their first national championship.

After jumping to a six-run lead through three innings, the Chancellors survived a furious rally by the Sylmar Spartans to win, 8-7, in front of about 6,000 at Dodger Stadium.

Chancellor pitcher Keith Nicholson (8-2) got the offense rolling with a two-run double in the first inning. Errors in the first and third innings allowed Chatsworth to score another four runs against Dana Ridenour (11-4), who had given up only seven hits in three previous playoff games. The Chancellors had six hits against Ridenour in the first three innings.

Sylmar chased Nicholson in the fifth inning and pulled within 8-6. Coach Bob Lofrano summoned reliever Steve Reed, who retired the first six batters he faced.

The Spartans rallied in the top of the seventh. With two out, Ridenour doubled and scored on Larry Sanchez's single. But Reed got Mike Hirsch to pop out to first baseman Steve Landy to preserve the victory. Reed, later a major league pitcher, was selected the game's most valuable player.

Thursday, May 31 Los Angeles City Section Division 4-A Champions

The Chancellors rallied under first-year Coach Tom Meusborn for two runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to defeat favored El Camino Real, 3-2, at Dodger Stadium.

Chatsworth had been shut out by Pat Treend (12-1) through five innings before getting to the right-hander in the sixth. After three consecutive walks with one out, Adam Pearlman singled to center field to drive in one run. Tommy Lee was waived in from second base but was thrown out at the plate for the second out. The Chancellors had to settle for one run and trailed, 2-1.

In the seventh, Treend walked Rodney Bloom to open the inning. Nestor Martinez bunted but Treend threw late to second base and both runners were safe. Mike Mancuso bunted but second baseman Herman Merchan dropped Treend's throw at first base. Bloom scored on the play to tie the score, 2-2, and Martinez moved to third. Mancuso moved to second on pitcher's indifference when Treend held the ball as Mancuso strolled to second.

After catching Mitch Root's liner, Treend intentionally walked Reed McMackin, who was selected the game's most valuable player, to load the bases. Lee laid down a suicide squeeze to score Martinez with the winning run.

A crowd of about 4,000 watched on a rainy night at Dodger Stadium as the top-seeded Chancellors broke open a close contest to beat Poly, 17-7, in a game called after six innings because of the 10-run rule.

Charles Kenny, the No. 9 hitter in the lineup, ended a 6-6 tie in the fifth with a three-run triple. Kenny finished with three hits and six runs batted in. The Chancellors had 17 hits, including three by Matt Cassel, and set a record for most runs scored in the 30-year history of the City Final at Dodger Stadium.

Left-hander Mike Kunes (13-1), the City Section player of the year, struck out 10 to finish his two-year Chatsworth varsity career with a 25-3 record.

Tuesday, June 5 Los Angeles City Section Champions

Top-seeded and favored, the Chancellors won their second title in three years by defeating a tough Roosevelt team, 2-1, in front of 3,536 at Dodger Stadium.

Left-hander Joe Guntz (14-0) struck out 10 and gave up four hits in a duel with hard-throwing right-hander Joram Iboa (8-3). Guntz worked out of trouble in the top of the seventh after two Roosevelt runners reached base with two out. He struck out Francisco Figueroa on a called third strike to end the game.

The Chancellors, who finished 31-2, a school season record, took a 1-0 lead on a two-out single to right field by Jared Halpert that scored George Spadier from second base in the first inning.

In the fourth inning, pinchhitter Jon Selman's single to right field drove in Jason Dominguez from second base for a 2-0 lead.

Roosevelt ended Guntz's playoff scoreless streak at 18-2/3 innings when Iboa hit a run-scoring single in the fifth.
